

NOONBOX

Noonbox is operated by Baltic Restaurants - Latvian company that exports half of its services. The company was founded in 1993 and has the widest network of canteens, restaurants and cafés in Baltics providing meals in 14 kindergartens and 47 schools in Latvia and in 51 kindergartens and 63 schools in Estonia.

we DO use

V

- High-quality ingredients with proven origin
- Seasonal vegetables and fruits from different local farmers
- BIO products (within capabilities)
- Food made only from raw materials
- Herbs and spice root vegetables to enrich the taste of food with natural products
- Meat products that contain more than 70% meat
- Fishing products that contain more than 60% fish

Latvian Diet Doctors Association's since 2008 has approved – our children meals are healthy, balanced, recommendable and according to all laws and regulations.

we DON'T use

X

- Products that contain partially hydrogenated vegetable fats
- Flavour enhancers, artificial colourings and food additives
- Lots of salt and sugar
- Sugar pastries products
- GMO - genetically modified ingredients
- Products that are produced with milk substitute
- Dry bullion or bullion concentrates
- Sour cream products with vegetable oils
- Beverages with caffeine and amino acid
- Meat products that contain soya beans or soya products, mechanically separated meat
- Semi-finished products like instant potato puree
- Raw materials high in acetic acid or citric acid
- Soya or modified vegetable oils
- Forbidden products and ingredients in schools