

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL OF RIGA

Summary for School Council meetings in November, 2021

On Tuesday, November 9th, 2021 a regular School Council meeting took place. During the Admissions update/ Marketing activities update (done; actual, planned) done by Cyrielle Bazin SC members discussed activities according to the Marketing plan for SY 2021/22. Cyrielle informed SC members about social media content in the making, updated sections on the ISR website, articles in media about ISR as well as updated the influencer marketing cooperation plan. Cyrielle continues to inform there are 267 (plus one in October 2021) students admitted to the School as well as 14 inquiries and 7 visits to the School. Business manager Inese Avotina reports on three topics: Financial report of the previous academic year approved by the audit; September Financial results report and proposal for voting on continuing cooperation with current auditors. SC approves the chosen auditor Orients Audit & Finance. Finance and Facilities Committees inform in updates regarding the new Campus project. ISR has found an architect company Made with experience in building schools in Scandinavia and Estonia as well. The Letter of Understanding with the landlord and new campus developer Linstow has been finalized, the total price for the design in minimal scope and interior guidelines has been negotiated. SC members discuss organizing the new Campus Construction in 2 phases vs 1 phase. SC members agree on the approach for having an open discussion with the architects and explaining all the aspects and conclusions of the school and requesting an expert proposal for proceeding.
