Summary for School Council meeting on September 16, 2025

On September 16th, 2025, a regular School Council meeting took place at the Skanstes 27 campus.

Amanda Romey (AR) presented admissions updates. Summer outreach included a virtual open house and digital campaigns, resulting in several new applications. The Council discussed steady interest in the secondary school and in primary.

In the Director's Report, AR outlined strategic goals under the Learning and Teaching framework, focusing on assessment alignment and staff retention. Community goals included stronger partnerships and updated marketing efforts. The Finance Committee presented the 2024–2025 year-end summary. The five-year financial plan will be updated in line with new campus operations and enrollment trends.

The Facilities Committee shared a proposal for improvements in K118. The Council approved proceeding with the work before the October break.
